Abstracts

Mexican enterprises maintained a healthy rate of expansion in 2018, fuelling spending on business services in the country. The agriculture and services sectors were the core drivers of growth, while export-oriented sectors also performed well due to rising trade with the US. In addition, the analysed industry's growth was also driven by higher foreign direct inflows in the first half of 2018 and stronger private consumption. However, business services spending grew slightly slower than in 2017,...
