Abstracts

The global business travel market recovered better than expected from the recession in 2009, but it is now facing challenges in Europe and the Middle East and Africa, where economic and political troubles are hindering faster growth. However, future performance is expected to be positive, and the key winners are Asia Pacific and Latin America. Globally, operators benefited from the recovery, re-investing their recovered profits in new services.

Euromonitor International's Business Travel: A Challenging Recovery global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel and Tourism market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Car Rental, Demand Factors, Health and Wellness Tourism, Tourism Flows Domestic, Tourism Flows Inbound, Tourism Flows Outbound, Tourism Receipts and Expenditure, Tourist Attractions, Transportation, Travel Accommodation, Travel Retail.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
