Abstracts

In 2017, manufacturers catered for the ongoing and expanding vegan trend by offering plant-based spreads. In addition, consumers paid attention to flavour and healthier fat and salt contents while also turning their attention to environmental issues. For example, Unilever's key Flora brand emphasised that the carbon footprint of its all-plant-oil-based spreads was lower than that of standard butter, thus appealing to consumers concerned about the environment. The company also took advantage of t...
