Abstracts

Butter and margarine saw a 5% increase in retail current value sales in 2017, which was in line with the review period CAGR. Positive value sales development was driven by the rising popularity of butter in Morocco, as reflected by growing imports and increased unit prices. This follows the global trend for butter, which stimulated demand and higher prices in Morocco. Importantly, the image of butter has been renewed by studies and media publicity emphasising its positive health effects, which c...
