Abstracts

Butter continues to grow in popularity in the UK and recorded a 1% hike in volume terms in 2017. The growth in demand can be largely attributed to the fact that British consumers are increasingly opting for less processed and more natural products. This is in agreement with the health and wellness trend sweeping the UK, in which consumer choices are increasingly driven by whether products are considered healthy or not. As health concerns shifted away from fats towards sugars and margarine and ot...
