Abstracts

Butter consumption in the Czech Republic was challenged following the surge caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. This decrease in retail volume continued in 2022, with the significant increase in prices impacting sales, but in 2023, we expect the consumption to stabilise, with a small decrease in volume. Butter sales will benefit as it is one of the basic ingredients in the Czech kitchen; other types of spreads do not often replace that. Even in times of high inflation when the prices have increased...
