Abstracts

Butter and spreads is expected to register double-digit current value growth, though volumes sales are expected to fall. While the economic outlook is improving, inflation still remains high and this is expected to dampen volume sales. In addition, the Kenyan shilling is depreciating against the dollar and this is making imports more expensive. Cooking fat remains the largest product in terms of volume sales, as it is the most affordable, though it is hit with significant price rises in 2023. As...
