Abstracts

Butter and spreads witnessed among the highest unit price growth in dairy in 2022 resulting in the category seeing double-digit growth in current value terms. However, sales plummeted in retail volume terms in 2022, even more significantly than in the previous year when the market saw a logical setback after the surge caused by the pandemic. In 2023 sales of butter and spreads has seen a certain degree of stabilisation in volume terms while inflation continues to contribute towards value growth.
