Abstracts

Volume growth is expected to be muted for butter in 2023. With inflation still high, though easing, consumers are expected to be price sensitive and as a result opt for more affordable margarine and spreads rather than butter. The situation is further complicated by an unstable supply of milk in Uzbekistan. As a result of the poor development of agriculture and, in particular, dairy farms, the supply of milk to butter manufacturers is often unstable. As a result of this instability, many local b...
