Abstracts

The approval of medical cannabis has been postponed again to 2024 according to official sources. However, it is estimated that its full implementation will be further delayed. France began its medical trial in 2021. It was set to be a 2-year pilot study of approximately 3,000 patients. In 2022, its success led the French government to issue a decree legalising medical cannabis, but due to political reasons this had not come to fruition by the end of the review period. The approval of medical can...
