Abstracts

Since mid-2022, inflationary pressures and the decline in disposable incomes have had an impact on Cannabis product consumption in Greece. On the one hand, the cost of living crisis is taking its toll on consumer spending on Cannabis products. These products are high-cost and do not have a commodity status, so they are subject to losses when consumers change spending priorities. As disposable incomes are shrinking, Greek consumers are forced to prioritise spending on essentials and allocate thei...
