Abstracts

The legal cannabis market in South Africa has continued to see strong growth on the back of the landmark judgement in 2018, which determined private use and consumption of cannabis as legal within private spaces. As an example, private spaces include the space within an individual's home, but also an area which is restricted for the general public. Since 2018, South Africans have increasingly accepted cannabis as a legitimate product, thereby increasing its consumption rate. Additionally, South...
