Abstracts

Canned/preserved food is expected to see stagnant growth in current value sales terms, while retail volume sales are set to decline by 1% in 2014. Domestic canned/preserved food producers have been challenged by the aggressive pricing strategies of private label and imported products over the review period, and they accuse grocery retailers of denying them shelf space. SPC Ardmona Ltd had a request for funding from the federal government refused in February 2014, before the Victorian state...
