In 2014, canned/preserved food achieved retail value growth of 6% and sales of Bt8.3 billion as Thai consumers continued to appreciate the convenience of these products. Canned/preserved food has a very long storage life and thus it can be used when fresh ingredients are sparse. In addition, various events over the review period such as flooding and political turmoil have led to the habit among Thai consumers of stocking up with canned/preserved food to help them through periods of difficulty.
