Abstracts

Car rental (destination) services suffered notably during the time of the pandemic, particularly so due to the decline in inbound travellers and the loss of business travel and associated car rental services. The category also saw a slow start as travel began to resume, especially during the first half of 2021 when COVID-19-related measures were still very strict (e.g., international travel limitations, quarantine conditions, hotels in Austria closed for leisure travellers) and flight plans were...
