Abstracts

With air travel off the table for many Canadians, road trips have served as a crucial means to connect people with different parts of the country during the pandemic. As such, car rentals, representing a more viable alternative to flying, have been used by travellers when visiting friends, family and nature destinations. Seasonal trips to national parks such as Banff and Yoho have been in hot demand in lieu of international travel, with many visitors opting to rent a car and drive. However, rest...
