Abstracts

Further healthy current value growth is projected for the forecast period. The rising number of inbound tourists is driving growth, as very high car ownership limits the domestic car rental demand. Czech consumers use car rental services rarely, and it is more common to borrow a car from a relative or friend when required. Nonetheless, demand is set to grow as more local consumers are likely to rent a car that is larger than the one they have at home when going on holiday. Moreover, there is gro...
