Abstracts

The number of cars being rented for travel purposes continued to record steady but undynamic growth in 2019 in Finland. However, the attitude to car ownership in the country is changing, especially amongst millennials, with younger Finns more likely to rent a car and travel together to share the cost in addition to having some company. In addition, a number of Finns are interested in ecological aspects or options when renting cars, with Europcar and EkoRent offering electric cars to rent, while...
