Abstracts

Carbonates in Kenya showed another impressive performance in 2023, with off- and on-trade volume sales increasing at robust rates. Favourable demographic trends, rising urbanisation and the expansion of the country's middle class continued to underpin the positive development of the category. In particular, it profited from the fact that people under 30 years old now make up the vast majority of the population, as young adults and adolescents are the main consumers of these types of soft drinks.
