Abstracts

Car rental continued to post a positive performance in 2017, despite the complicated economic situation in Ukraine, with current value sales increasing by 8% to reach UAH715 million. There were three major factors which hampered the development of car rental in Ukraine, including an unstable economic situation, weak purchasing power and extremely high prices for car rental services. In addition, it should also be noted that, as a rule, market players set prices based on national currency exchange...
