Abstracts

Off-trade volume and current value sales benefitted from COVID-19, with growth in both indicators up slightly from 2019, as people consumed more carbonates at home. On the other hand, on-trade value suffered double-digit decline, as foodservice outlets were closed for parts of the year and when they did open, social distancing measures and lower disposable incomes continued to dampen sales. COVID-19 negatively affected the economy, with decreasing oil and gas prices also leading to a depreciatio...
