Abstracts

Carbonates continued to register healthy growth in total volume terms in 2021, although off-trade sales registered slower growth as on-trade and fountain sales registered a recovery. The hot summer coupled with the limited foreign travel opportunities had a positive effect on domestic consumption in 2021. The main driver of retail volume growth within carbonates in 2020 stemmed from consumers switching to larger packaging due to an increase in at-home consumption, which included the rise of a ho...
