Abstracts

CPW is a joint venture between General Mills and Nestlé to target non-North American breakfast cereals. Its portfolio includes some of the leading brands in the category. It is also present in snack bars although it has retrenched over the review period as the partners chose to pursue their own individual interests rather than those of CPW. The company however, remains overly reliant on the mature Western European market and has struggled with competition from Kellogg in Latin America.

Euromonitor International's Cereal Partners Worldwide SA in Packaged Food (World) Company Profile offers detailed strategic analysis of the company's business, examining its performance in the Packaged Food market. The report examines company shares by region and sector, brand portfolio and new product developments, market and distribution strategies, challenges from the competition and future prospects. Use it to understand opportunities and threats facing the business and the factors driving success.

Product coverage: Baby Food, Bakery, Canned/Preserved Food, Chilled Processed Food, Confectionery, Dairy, Dried Processed Food, Frozen Processed Food, Ice Cream, Impulse and Indulgence Products, Meal Replacement, Meal Solutions, Noodles, Nutrition/Staples, Oils and Fats, Pasta, Ready Meals, Sauces, Dressings and Condiments, Snack Bars, Soup, Spreads, Sweet and Savoury Snacks.
