Abstracts

The global tissue and hygiene retail landscape continues to experience shifts in consumer shopping habits. Developed economies are seeing the expansion of grocery discounters and in turn the growth of private label, resulting in declining unit prices. Meanwhile, online retail is expanding across the globe, in both developed and developing markets. E-commerce allows consumers easily to shop for the best price and evaluate competing products, and allows manufacturers to expand their distribution.

Euromonitor International's Channel Overview in Tissue and Hygiene global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
