Abstracts

Cheese continues to see falling retail volume sales in Norway in 2023, though at a much slower rate than was recorded in 2022. The persistent decline in demand for cheese has been accentuated by the post-pandemic return to life outside the home and restaurants resuming full service, resulting in a waning frequency in home-cooked meals, sit-down breakfasts, and thus poorer performances for cheese sales.

Euromonitor International's Cheese in Norway report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in directly informs our forecasts to 2027, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
