Abstracts

As interest rates peaked in 2023, households, particularly those with mortgages, and low-income families, have faced increasing financial pressure, making it more challenging for parents to allocate discretionary spending towards clothing for their children. Consequently, all categories within childrenswear are expected to see slight declines in volume terms, and fairly stagnant performances in current value terms in 2023. Discount department store Best & Less, which is known for its budget-frie...
