Abstracts

In 2022, the total fertility rate in South Korea reached a new low of 0.78, with the number of newborns also dropping below 250,000 for the first time. The ongoing decline of new births in the country is resulting in falling retail volume sales for baby and toddler wear. To compensate for this drop in demand, operators of department stores (one of the key channels for baby and toddler wear) are focusing on introducing luxury and premium brands to capitalise on young parents' willingness to inves...
