Abstracts

Consumer demand for cider/perry in Bosnia and Herzegovina tends to be highly volatile, given that this category is small within alcoholic drinks. In 2023, even minor changes and shifts had significant impacts on the category's performance. Following a decline in 2022, cider/perry saw a rebound in consumer demand as new brand extensions attracted more consumers to try products in this category. This influx of new consumers resulted in stable and solid total retail value growth, indicating a posit...
