Abstracts

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, sales of cigars and cigarillos plummeted. This was mainly due to the closures of establishments, as consumers of these products are usually social smokers that enjoy smoking these products in social settings. In 2022, increased inflation and taxation on tobacco products led to further declining volumes of sales owing to increased unit prices. However, growth is set to be witnessed across the forecast period as incomes increase and lifestyles change, especial...
