Abstracts

Las Vegas is the third most visited city in the US and the 26th most visited internationally. It has long been seen as a hub for gambling and nightlife, but has now expanded to include top-rated restaurants, outdoor adventures, sporting events, and more. The massive hotels and convention centre offer an ideal setting for conventions and business. However, the city faces increasing competition from Native American casinos and other gambling destinations that are dispersed throughout the US.

Euromonitor International's City Travel Briefing: Las Vegas global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Activities (Destination), Lodging, Online Travel Sales and Intermediaries, Tourism Flows, Travel Modes, Traveller Profiles.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
