Clothing and footwear specialist retailers was one of the channels most affected by Japan's continuing economic problems and resultant low consumer confidence ratings. This followed on from a slow shift in consumer attitudes in Japan during the review period, with consumers increasingly looking for bargain buys as well as designer labels. Consequently, clothing and footwear specialist retailers had to adapt to survive towards the end of the review period.

Euromonitor International's Clothing and Footwear Specialist Retailers in Japan report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers.
