Abstracts

As with most of the banking sector, Clydesdale Bank faced very adverse trading conditions in 2012, and planned to devote much of 2013 to repairing its balance sheet in order to bring the bank back into profit, while complying with the far greater burden of regulation that has been imposed in response to the financial crisis. This will be further complicated by forthcoming legislation at both UK and EU level, and by regulations from the Bank of International Settlements. Clydesdale Bank also...
