Abstracts

While non-alcoholic drinks will remain the company's primary focus over the forecast period, it will continue to increase investment in its activities in alcoholic drinks, specifically in spirits. The company's portfolio in the latter category expanded in 2016 after it took over a number of Campari-Milano brands that were previously distributed by Amvix. These included Aperol, which was one of the best-performing brands in Greek alcoholic drinks in terms of total volume sales growth during the y...
