Abstracts

Standard fresh coffee volume sales continued to slide in 2023 as an increasing number of Danes are cutting down on the amount of coffee that they drink daily. Younger consumers are likely to consume fewer cups of coffee than their older counterparts, but are likely to spend slightly more on each cup. Products with organic and ethical certificates, as well as products underlining the origin of the product, are seeing good growth in fresh coffee. This is in line with both the health and wellness t...
