Abstracts

Retail current value sales of coffee were driven by sharp rises in average current unit prices towards the end of the review period, as the prices of commodities and production and supply costs increased substantially. This led to thriftier shopping behaviour, with a concomitant decreases in retail volume sales in 2022 and 2023. High inflation, rising costs of production and logistics and slow growth in wages/salaries continued to dampen demand at the end of the review period. As consumer purcha...
