Abstracts

Colombina continues to expand its portfolio as part of its diversification strategy, moving away from being solely recognised as confectionery company. Its healthy portfolio, called Colombina 100%, with products in several categories, such as sauces, biscuits and baby food, amongst others, will continue to be its most important focus. Even some of its confectionery brands, such as Millows and Grissly, have made the transition to the 100% label, offering reduced sugar options with vitamins in the...
