Abstracts

Eastern European sales of colour cosmetics recorded a steep decline in 2020. Measures introduced to contain the spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19), such as lockdowns, retail closures and mask-wearing, all had a negative impact on sales. Lip products was the worst performer, with this part of the face covered in public when mask-wearing. Colour cosmetics sales will return to positive growth from 2021, but will not reach pre-pandemic levels again before the end of the forecast period.
