Abstracts

Sales in colour cosmetics in Spain saw good growth in 2023, in both value and volume terms. Much of this is supported by the return of social activities and out-of-home lifestyles following the era of the pandemic when, conversely, the associated restrictions and requirements for face coverings meant a slump in the usage of cosmetics products. However, with the reopening of society and return to full out-of-home activities, consumers once again started to value their personal grooming and appear...
