Abstracts

Regional and local brands increasingly fuel global beauty industry growth. The top 10 emerging markets in terms of absolute value growth are projected to contribute 57% of the global absolute market gains through to 2022. Local brands in each of these markets are consistently among the top growth drivers. Their bearing on future growth should not be dismissed. Such brands are stiffening competition, making it harder for global rivals to gain strong growth platforms in opportunity zones.

Euromonitor International's Competing with Giants: The Rise of Local Competition global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.

Product coverage: Baby and Child-specific Products, Bath and Shower, Colour Cosmetics, Deodorants, Depilatories, Fragrances, Hair Care, Mass Beauty and Personal Care, Men's Grooming, Oral Care, Oral Care Excl Power Toothbrushes, Premium Beauty and Personal Care, Prestige Beauty and Personal Care, Skin Care, Sun Care.
