Abstracts

Confectionery packaging saw a decline in its unit volumes in 2020, with COVID-19 having a negative effect on these products in a number of ways. For example, some on-the-go/impulse sales were lost when consumers were in lockdown or working/studying from home. In addition, the COVID-19 restrictions had an impact on the local and international economies, resulting in consumers in the United Arab Emirates seeing a drop in their disposable incomes. Furthermore, consumers were looking to eat healthie...
