Abstracts

In 2010, the leading companies in sugar confectionery – the multinationals Arcor and Cadbury Adams – continued investing in new product developments, including new flavours, pack types and pack sizes. However, domestic companies were more reluctant to pursue the development of novel products, due to concerns about the global economic crisis, which started in late 2008, and which substantially affected exports. As a result, these companies focused mainly on the internal market. Domestic...
