Abstracts

Conservas La Costeña will benefit from an expanded production capacity in the forecast period, with the company investing in expanding its production facilities in San Luis Potosí and Ecatepec in 2018. The latter plant will see the introduction of new production lines focused on chillies and beans, in response to growing demand. The company will also expand production capacity for ketchup and mayonnaise, with an overall 30% increase in production capacity expected. This additional capacity will...
