Abstracts

The construction industry remained on a strong growth path in 2018, aided by Indonesia's expansionary budget and President Widodo's infrastructure development agenda. In the year, infrastructure spending under the annual state budget edged up 5.8% to amount to IDR410.7 trillion. Yet this represented a significant slowdown when compared with a 44.3% year-on-year increase in 2017, when the government pushed the fiscal deficit to 2.3% of GDP. Major achievements included the construction of more tha...
