Abstracts

In 2022, the newly elected right-wing government in Italy announced restrictions to the stimulus that had been triggering sales of furniture and major appliances in previous years. Consequently, while applications filed prior November 2022 were still valid, a much smaller audience were able to benefit from the stimulus programme in 2023. As expected, this led to a drop in demand for major appliances, especially built-in options. This pattern had already started to take hold in the second half of...
