Abstracts

Inflation remains a key factor for consumer appliances in Romania in 2023, as consumers' purchasing power continues to be affected by these economic pressures. In this context, volume sales of major appliances remain low, as many consumers are postponing their big-ticket purchases until a time of economic stability. That said, we are also seeing an element of polarisation in sales, with higher-income consumers seeking innovative models which offer long-term benefits, and lower-income consumers s...
