Abstracts

The picture is expected to be bleak for consumer electronics in 2023, with overall volume sales expected to fall. Continuing economic uncertainty as a result of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, the significant rise in inflation and tightening monetary policy is expected to dampen volume growth. In particular, inflation is expected to still be an issue, though its growth is expected to ease.

Euromonitor International's Consumer Electronics in Greece report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the in-home, portable and in-car consumer electronics products markets at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues.
