Abstracts

In spite of continuing rising prices in 2023, consumer foodservice registered an increase in constant value sales and there was also further opening of new outlets. However, profit margins were under strain, as costs also continued to rise and several operators were forced to undergo financial restructuring. Consumers also felt the financial pinch, and while they continued to dine out, they looked to economise by selecting cheaper menu options or eating in cheaper outlets, such as limited-servic...
