Abstracts

The high rate of inflation remained a topic of great concern to consumers and business owners in 2023, with Hungary recording one of the highest rates seen in the EU. Consumer foodservice outlets have been challenged with managing higher expenses for energy, ingredients and labour. In addition, players have had to ensure they do not deter price-sensitive customers, many who have re-evaluated their family budgets and made eating out a lower priority. With tourism gradually returning to pre-pandem...
