Abstracts

The consumer foodservice market in Israel was very uncertain in terms of security, economic conditions and political unrest in 2023. At the end of 2022, there was considerable hope for the restaurant market, after the significant declines seen during the COVID-19 crisis and the following financial uncertainty in the market. However, the continuing high rates of inflation and rising interest rates caused locals to struggle with lower levels of disposable income in 2023. The average mortgage incre...
