Abstracts

Consumer foodservice in 2023 was unable to keep up with the strong recovery of 2022. The previous year had strong growth on the back of consumers increasing their spend after two years of various lockdowns and service restrictions. However, inflation has been a massive obstacle for the industry as a whole with consumers being forced to restrict their spending. On top of the lack of spending from consumers on non-essential items, which extends to takeout food and dining out, the cost of productio...
